THE CLASS OF 1977

WELCOMES YOU

1977 Green And White

Bristol High School

John F. Kennedy Memorial

Bristol, Rhode Island

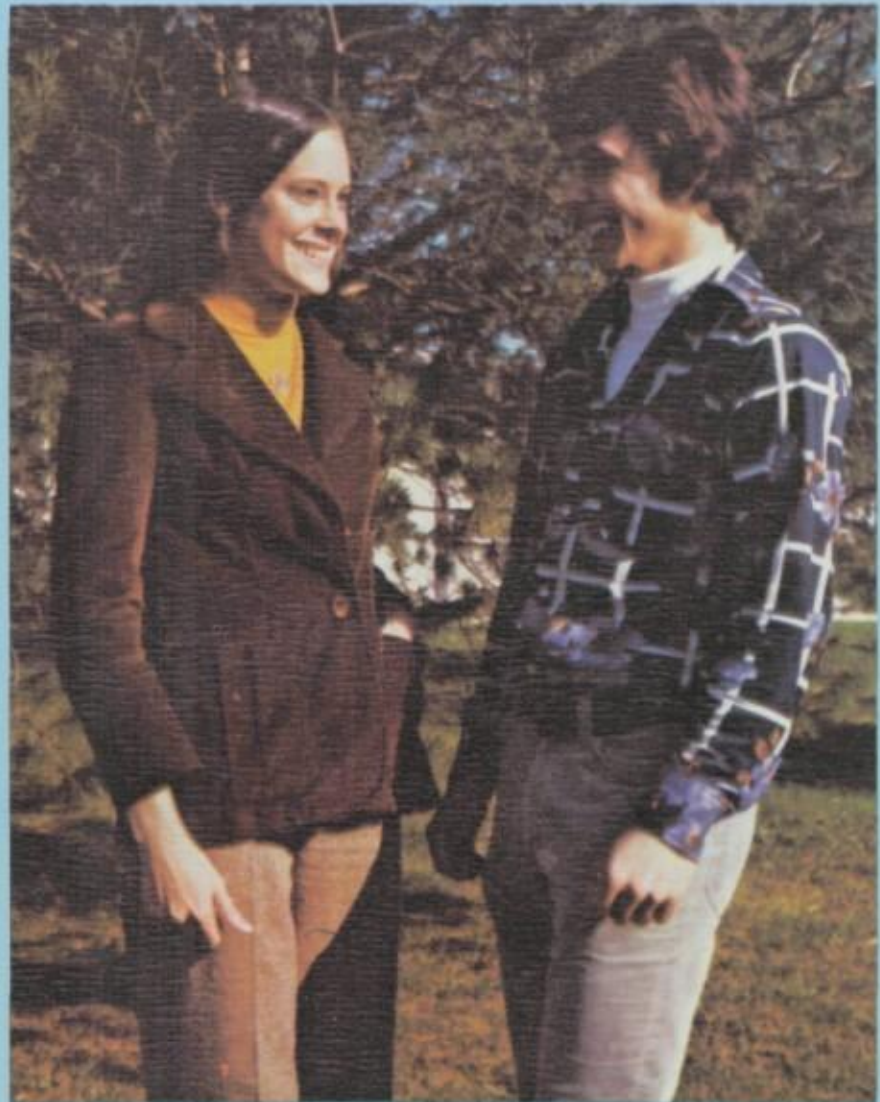

It is not often that a teacher comes along and touches the minds and the hearts of students. Her accomplishments as a teacher and Student Council advisor are numerous for one who has been here such a short time. She has tried to better the learning environment of the school as well as upbringing the morals of today's youth. It is with great honor that we dedicate this book to a woman who has exemplified outstanding qualities and given her time as well as her spirit to the school and most of all to the students.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anthony,

We thank you.

Superintendent

The greetings and best wishes for good health and a successful future are extended to you from the Office of the Superintendent. May you have courage and wisdom to meet the adjustments of life that you will face in the years ahead.

There are many turning points in your life where decisions must be made. Graduation offers you a turning point to take an inventory. You need to ask yourself: What have I achieved? Where am I going? What do I want to do? What can I do? How can I accomplish it so that I may be satisfied and yet satisfy others?

Remember yesterday as history; tomorrow as mystery; and today as unique — it never happened before. Graduation time gives you a "today" to take a clear look at what counts in life; it gives you a "today" to go after that goodness that God, your parents and society wants of you. You don't walk alone. You can and you do affect others in everything you do and in everything you say.

Dr. Edward P. Travers

Assistant Superintendent

The bicentennial is behind us and we are embarking into a new century of American history. You are the first high school graduates in that new century. On your shoulders and those of your peers throughout the world will perhaps rest the survival of the civilized world, as we know it today. We trust that your educational experiences in the Bristol School System have enhanced your abilities to cope with the tremendous challenges facing you in the years ahead. Best wishes for happiness and success.

To the Class of 1977:

Commencement comes from the Latin words "com" and "initiare" which mean to enter upon; to begin.

As you graduate from your academic studies, it is my hope that you will enter a life stored with learning experiences; that you will continue to learn and grow. Your education at Bristol High School will stand the test of time.

Many years from now, when you are settled in life and you are browsing through this yearbook, you will better be able to answer the questions — Were my years at Bristol High School valuable and productive? — Has my education served as a basis to enter upon the road of Life?

Class History

In September of 1972, a group of stumbling youths invaded Bristol High School. We, the Class of 1977, had entered eighth grade. There were things to do, memories to make, goals to set. With the aid of our advisor, the late Mrs. Patricia (Mack) Leveille, we elected our class officers; President, Kenneth Annarummo, Vice President, James Costa, Secretary, Nancy Agatiello, and Treasurer, Ann Principe. We were the first eighth grade class to build a Homecoming float. Despite all our time and efforts, the results were very disappointing.

In our Freshman year however, we received second place in the Homecoming float competition. Miss Margaret Vendituoli was our advisor, Robin Perry our President, Karen Raiola, Vice President, Mary Ann Vaccaro, Secretary, and Kevin Bilotti, Treasurer. We organized our first Christmas Dance, and then later followed up with the Freshman Frolic. It was held on April 27 and was appropriately named "Pieces of April".

Then came our Sophomore year. As sophomores, we began our money making efforts with a back-to-school yard sale. After that we all gathered at the house of Cindy Benevides to build our third Homecoming float. This one was entitled "Colt Construction Company" and won second place. The realization and excitement that we would soon become upperclassmen reached us in November as we ordered our class rings. As the holiday season approached we co-sponsored a Christmas Dance with the freshman class, which was a great success. With the coming of spring, our advisor, Mr. Jeffrey Faria, and officers; President, Michael Ramos, Vice President, Lynne Andrews, Secretary, Stacy Dunbar, and Treasurer, Mark Lawrence were busy preparing for our last dance in the Bristol High School cafeteria, the Sophomore Hop. It was held on May 24, and the theme song was "Make It With You".

We were to be led in our Junior year by our advisor, Mr. Jeffrey Faria, our President, Lynne Andrews, Vice President, Kim McCarthy, Secretary, Donna Soares, and Treasurer, Maria Carmone. For the third consecutive year we received second place for our Homecoming float. Then in November came the highlight of our Junior year. At the "Ring Thing", students sat on bales of hay and listened to the sounds of "Leon" while anxiously awaiting the arrival of our rings. Soon we were involved in our first out-of-school function. This was the Junior-Senior Christmas Dance which was held on December 21 at White's Restaurant in Tiverton. As the New Year passed we watched the Seniors busily preparing for graduation and, in awe, realized it would soon be our turn. The year was ended with the traditional Junior Prom held on May 14 at the Coachmen Restaurant. The theme was "Your Song" which we felt was a fitting prelude for our Senior year.

Then on September 8, we, the Class of 1977, who had five years before entered this school as frightened yet anxious students, now entered as mighty Seniors. At that first assembly, we realized the time had now come for us to make the decisions, achieve those goals, and lead the way. The excitement of Homecoming was greater than ever because not only would it be our final Homecoming, but also a new experience for all. The Pep Rally was moved outdoors and highlighted with one of the first bonfires ever held on the Bristol High School field. On Friday night, October 22 at 7:30 p.m., the kick-off for our first night football game took place. This was followed by the annual Homecoming Mixer which ended at 12:30. We completed the first half of our Senior year with the Christmas Dance on December 22 at the Coachmen. Memories began to drift through our minds as we danced to the theme song "White Christmas". Spring was a time for college acceptances, planned activities, and many preparations for Graduation. These were attended to by our advisors, Mr. Richard Blouin and Mr. William Fasano, and our class officers; President, Frank Campagna, Vice President, Kim McCarthy, Secretary, Mary Ann Desmarais, and Treasurer, Maria Carmone. Before we knew it the Senior Reception was upon us. It was held on May 27 at the Venus De Milo and was a memorable night for all. The Class Banquet began this final yet busy week. There we received our treasured yearbooks and now we eagerly but reluctantly await Graduation. We will leave this school "Remembering Today and Hoping for Tomorrow".

In Memory

Linda Enos

Our friend Linda . . .

Loved to walk, to run, to swim. She enjoyed concerts, nature and reading. She experienced success, failure, happiness and pain. Linda was the type of person who really lived life to its very fullest.

When you had something to say, Linda was right there to listen. She was a true friend. Linda will always be very special to us, for she was so much a part of us and as we grow older, her memory will always remain.

In Memory of
Robert S. Ferreira

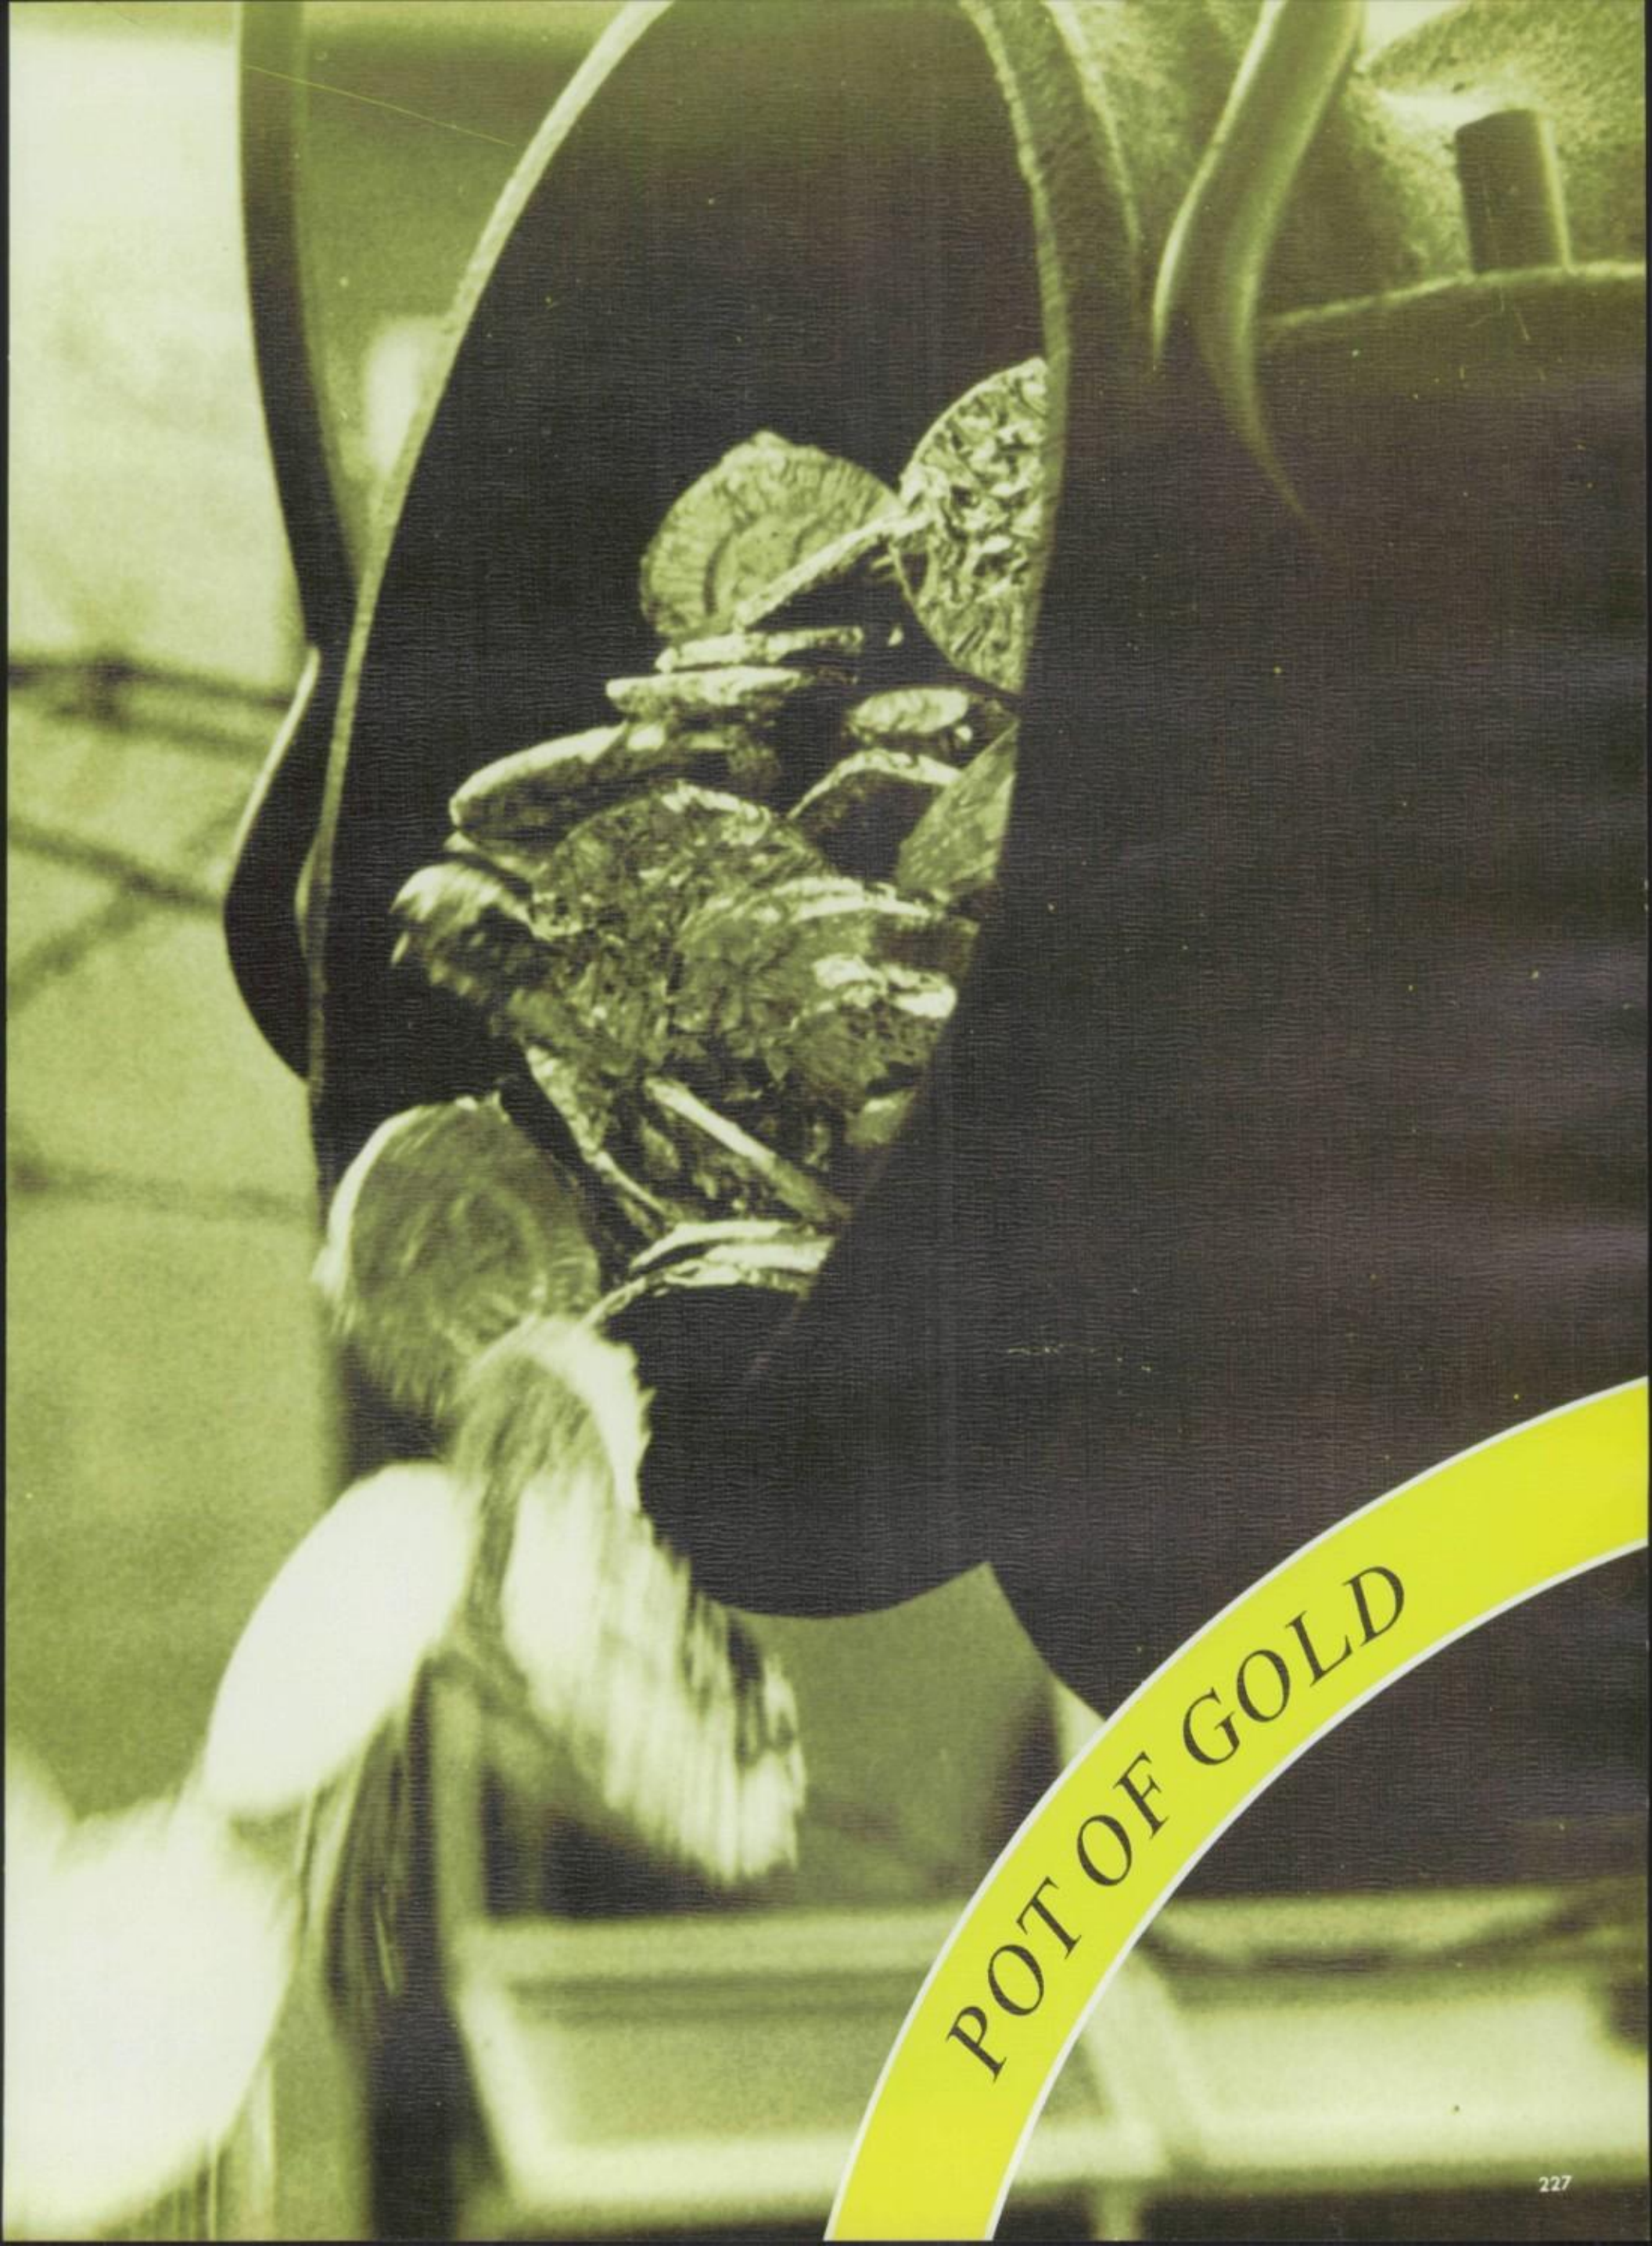

Bobby, time will never erase the memory of you — laughing with us and enjoying life to its fullest. In athletics, scholastics, and especially friendship, you always gave the best of yourself, making every minute of every day meaningful. We are grateful to you for touching our lives and thankful for being our friend.

In Memory of
Patricia M. Leveille

Our time together was much too short. We wish you could know that your efforts in guiding us proved worthwhile, and also greatly contributed to our final goal. You led us in the right direction, not only academically, but also in life. We thank you and always will cherish our moments together.

Acknowledgements

Throughout the school year, there has been one person who has dedicated his time and patience in helping out and guiding us in our construction of the 1977 yearbook. We would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank Mr. Domenic Raiola.

Thomas Soares deserves our thanks for his time and cooperation put into taking pictures.

Also, of course, we are deeply appreciative of Mr. Iasiello and Mr. Matrone for patience and cooperation with our staff. The secretaries and Mrs. Partington have been more than helpful to us. They have devoted much time in sorting mail, collecting pictures and numerous other tasks. We would also like to thank Miss Sylvia for handling all our money situations, and Mr. Santo for all his patience and time in helping us with assemblies and sports.

Mrs. Meiggs should also be recognized for putting up with our staff and all its problems.

And how can we ever repay Mr. and Mrs. Cardoza for letting us disturb their household and devour all their food.

TITLE IX: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance."

We as a class, and as people, form each separate and different colors of our rainbow.
As we experience different situations here at Bristol High,
the colors of the rainbow grow deeper and richer.
Standing at the end of our four year rainbow
the colors merge and vanish beyond the horizon.
We forget the days when things didn't go exactly right and we only seem to remember the warm and golden memories and dreams of tomorrow that make Bristol High its own pot of gold.
